

INVISIBLE ALLIANCE

THE UNDERGROUND NETWORK LINKING
IRAN, HEZBOLLAH, LATIN AMERICA AND FAITH

SYNOPSIS

"Invisible Pact" is a documentary aimed at entertaining audiences by delving into the complexities of individuals driven by ambition, redemption, and revenge, revealing the hidden connections between politics, crime, and global geopolitics.

The narrative follows the true story of a former Hezbollah suicide bomber who played a crucial role in expanding one of the largest drug trafficking networks in the world. After a childhood marked by the brutal murder of a friend, he joins Hezbollah, leading him down a dangerous path that forces him to flee to Latin America. There, he faces extreme challenges amidst drug trafficking and transnational criminal networks linked to the FARC.

With exclusive testimonies from high-ranking government members, renowned geopolitical experts, fugitives, and crime operatives, "Invisible Pact" exposes unexpected alliances and the underground dynamics that shape global power. The documentary addresses themes such as honor and dishonor, motivation by extremism, betrayal, and the consequences of addiction, culminating in a meeting at the Brazil-Paraguay border that changes the protagonist's destiny.
